Sarah Holmes, MS, CRC, LPC is a Vocational Consultant and the founder of SH Vocational Consulting, LLC.

Sarah obtained her Master of Science in Rehabilitation Psychology from the University of Wisconsin- Madison and has been working as a vocational counselor and expert witness for the past 20+ years.

Sarah provides expert opinions pertaining to earning capacity, loss of earning capacity, and mitigation efforts. She has vast knowledge in the areas of personal injury, discrimination, family law, Social Security, and worker's compensation.

Sarah has extensive experience providing both court room and deposition testimony. Additionally, she has assisted countless individuals in identifying and achieving their career goals.

Sarah enjoys assisting individuals in making career decisions that make sense for them. She does not follow a one size fits all approach.

Sarah works with her clients to identify their vocational options and guides them through the process to achieve their full potential. She is a member of the International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals (IARP).

In her free time, Sarah enjoys running, hiking, and camping with her family.
